RE: ScoutSurge 9/11 To Be Held at Local Fire Stations

The Boy Scouts of America have introduced a nationwide initiative to encourage Scouts and the Public to recognize and show respect for 9/11. The Blue Ridge Mountains Council, Boy Scouts of America (21 Counties and 8 Cities in SW Virginia) is planning to participate.

At 8:30 a.m. on Saturday, Sept. 11, 2010, we are encouraging our Scouting Units and their Families, all Emergency Services Personnel, as well as Veterans Organizations and the public to bring U.S. flags, meet at local fire stations at 8:30 a.m., hold a moment of silence at 8:46 a.m., recite the pledge of allegiance, and disperse.

Please consider this simple opportunity to gather together and show respect for those who perished, and those whose valiant efforts provided aid.

As this event will be publicized, please notify us immediately of your intent to participate.

For questions, comments, or to RSVP for your station, please contact:
